- b. I-765
- c. I-765ws
- d. G-28 (only if attorney is handling renewal)

2. New Information Required to fill out forms:

- a. A # that was issued by USCIS (check work authorization card)
- b. Social Security Number
- c. Biographic information (height, weight, race, ethnicity)

3. Documents/Evidence to include:

- a. Copy of front and back of expiring Work Authorization Card and Copy of I-797 approval notice issued when DACA was approved
- b. 2 passport sized pictures
- c. Money Order for $465.00 made payable to "The US Department of Homeland Security"

*The list above will be enough for most cases, if the applicant has a pending case in immigration court or has been in trouble with the law since their DACA was granted additional documents will need to be submitted:

If applicant has a case pending in Immigration Court, must send in:

1. Any new documents issued by the immigration judge
2. Copy of any removal orders
3. Any final decisions from the Board of Immigration Appeals or Federal Circuit Court

*Only submit document issued after first DACA was granted, do not resubmit evidence

If Applicant has had any trouble with law enforcement since DACA was granted, must send in:

1. Copies of any non-traffic tickets or citations
2. Court documents like minute orders or final dispositions
3. Documents explaining what happened (we recommend sending in a declaration explaining the circumstances)

We strongly recommend that applicants with new criminal cases contact an experienced Immigration attorney to ensure eligibility before sending in a renewal package. To speak with an immigration attorney from Corrales Law Group call 714-978-8100.
